Webzine One of the best albums to come out in a while Ska Punk And Other Junk Formed in Mid Wales in the summer of 2002 from a shared love of all things punk ska, 3 Minute Warning boast a 4 piece line up of Billy (guitar vocals), Chuzz (keys vocals), Harold (drums) Matt (bass) Soon after their formation they quickly established themselves throughout the UK with their blistering live shows. With influences ranging from The Specials Madness through to The Clash, Rancid The Bouncing Souls, 3 Minute Warning's sound is centred on storming streetpunk ska with great shoutalong choruses catchy keyboard melodies. After self releasing a debut CD EP, titled "Eating Ain't Cheating", the band then had their track "Faithless" included on a punk compilation released by Complete Control Music in 2004. Soon the band caught the ear of Do The Dog Music signed to the label in late 2005. 3 Minute Warning's debut full length album, titled "Tramps Jackpot", was released in April 2006. The CD picked up excellent reviews from the International ska punk press lots of radio airplay, including several spins on Radio 1's flagship punk rock show, The Lock Up. Since the release of "Tramps Jackpot" 3 Minute Warning have gigged extensively all across the UK also further afield in Europe.
