Psychedelic meditation 19 MP3 Songs ROCK: Progressive Rock, NEW AGE: Meditation Details:
SPIRESVORTEX I don't like very much classifications by genres (but I'd like psychedelic) You're free to define this music as you want! You might find it progressive rock, celtic, newage or experimental ... chill out ...? I play (instinctively) guitar, bass, bluesharp and (less) keyboards. All drums arranged by myself and mixed in GB. My music experiences started when I was sixteen, among blues road musicians met along the european streets, but this music comes from somewhere else (a secret garden), nothing to do with the place I live: the only real place I live is my mind! I can't still find a convincing definition for madness ... :) My actual human form lives in a land named Italy (I visit it sometimes ...) Rarely I play LIVE among a few friends, but I find public often conditioning ... I like a closer and personal contact with listeners ... not necessarily at a concert. A real band (absolutely not a cover one) needs a good feeling among its members. That's a far possibility ... I really don't know, maybe I could do that with Syd Barrett? Possibly "on the other side" ... when I'll meet him. My influences? Old progressive bands, gothic rock, celtic music, blues, ambient ... from King Crimson to Pentangle to Barrett, Cure, Ozrics and bands I like very much as AfroCelts and A Perfect Circle ... and too many others I appreciate, as Bjork or Isan. All that music coming from our deep inside universe, all that is "sensible" to free imagination, dark or luminous it is! I feel my tracks as soundtracks of my imagination (and meditations), and I like thinking of YOUR OWN imagination flying with my soundtracks! Here's all I've to tell ! Spires by Vortex = SpiresVortex with the kind collaboration of Walter M.
