

Mp3 Michael Dulin - A Nice Boy From Brooklyn

DOWNLOAD HERE

A 'must have' for all fans of George Gershwin and Michael Dulin. 32 of Gershwin's own knockout arrangements of some of his greatest songs, in a performance by pianist/composer Michael Dulin that is "fresh and flawless". 32 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Ragtime, CLASSICAL: Contemporary Details: Experience the music of Michael Dulin, and you'll never forget it. Unique in his ability to embrace and combine musical styles - smooth jazz, new age, Americana, Celtic, classical - he has developed a highly personal musical style with wide international appeal. Fans of Keiko Matsui, Jim Brickman, George Winston, and Wayne Gratz alike have found that Michael Dulin's music is indeed "music that soothes the soul and excites the mind". A world-class pianist and keyboardist, Dulin's music is the perfect marriage of heart and technique - simple enough to accompany any activity, yet complex enough to bear repeated listenings, revealing new layers of meaning with each hearing. Love songs, lullabies, wedding songs, Celtic hymns, ambient music, smooth jazz solos, even classical - it's all there. Michael Dulin has quickly reached international prominence as New Age/Smooth Jazz pianist and composer. His first two solo CDs, "The One I Waited For" (2003) and "Atmospheres" (2003) reached #1 on the New Age Reporter World Airplay Charts, and were in the top 5 for the entire year. His music is now heard on radio stations around the world, on satellite radio, Internet radio, and Digital TV. Hailed as "one of the most versatile musicians I've ever known" by renowned critic Kathy Parsons, Dulin toured 6 months (2003-04) with the Temptations Review featuring Dennis Edwards. He continues to write and produce music for radio, TV, film and the theater. Michael Dulin - truly a musical Renaissance man. So enjoy the artistry of Michael Dulin's music. After the song is over, the magic stays with you... Check him out at michaeldulin.com

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals: