"Intense, passionate sermons on the gospel of raw blues rock, psychedelic soul, beautiful guitar-overlay and transcendent solos, one listen and your blood feels electric." -Real Detroit's Jeff Milo 9 MP3 Songs

ROCK: Detroit Rock, BLUES: Blues-Rock Show all album songs: Hand of God Songs Details: Formed in 2005, the Universal Temple of Divine Power consists of Chuck Burns of Speedball, Skeemin No Goods and Seduce fame, as well as former Kingsnakes, Elliott Moses and Chris Andrews. Art McCauley rounds out the band as the fourth member. Their mutual love of gospel, blues, soul and early rock-n-roll shines through in their creation of authentic, powerful, Detroit-style rock. They have enjoyed sharing the stage with local bands like the Sights, the Muggs, the Howling Diablos, the Hotness, CRUD, Nova Driver, the Flask and many more. The national acts they have shared the stage with include Blue Cheer, Starship, Big Head Todd and the Monsters, Mark Farner and ? Mark and the Mysterians. Real Detroit's Jeff Milo can be quoted as saying, The band delivers intense passionate sermons on the gospel of raw blues rock, psychedelic soul and transcendent beautiful guitar solos. Making rock feel ceremonious again. While Rachel May of the Free Press and Broadzilla has equally complimented them, they're flawless, furious and sincerely soulful. Eve Doster of the Metro Times has said they are perfectly poised to be future torchbearers of the Motor City's regenerating music scene. Their debut CD, Hand Of God, was released November 3rd, 2007.
