Powerful, acoustic trio of songwriters/performers with a variety of musical styles and a common thread of positive, thought-provoking lyrics. 12 MP3 Songs FOLK: Folk Pop, ROCK: Americana Details: Elaine, Lambert Karl It was a natural development that these three singer/ songwriters would come together. Their mutual respect for one another, as well as their common desire to be a positive influence on the world around them has made the union of these three lifelong friends inevitable. The combined list of songs and lyrics that they have written or chosen to perform are filled with a unified message of hope and brotherhood, with the caring and understanding of those who know what these honorable qualities are worth. To experience a performance of E.L.K. is to be reminded of a better place, where all are accepted and valued in this celebration of life through the beautiful fellowship of music. This independent group of troubadours has traveled to an expanding list of cities across the country welcomed by a growing crowd of patrons who seem to be searching for the gifts that these three so thoughtfully and effortlessly share. November, 2000, finds this trio opening for 2 time Grammy award winner, Keb' Mo' on the mid-western section of the national tour. Elaine, Lambert Karl have recently released their debut CD: "Live Simple, Breathe Deep." Guest artists appearing on this CD include Mark Andes on bass, Rob Hooper on drums, Cha-Cha Friedkin on keyboards, Eddie Williams on sax, and Clayton Gibb on mandolin percussion (as well as engineering and producing).
