Piano pop adjusted for modern themes. 12 MP3 Songs POP: Pop/Rock, POP: Piano Show all album songs: Sticky Hands Songs Details: "Jessica's songs are relatable, hooky and very radio-friendly lots of crossover potential here. On top of the well-written, well-produced material featured on her album, she's fantastic to watch as a live performer!" - Mike Savage, Senior Director Creative Media, A&R Worldwide. Jessica is currently hard at work in the studio with Jay Evjen (Hot Hot Heat, Wide Mouth Mason, Reel Vinyl) recording her follow up to the 2006 release, Sticky Hands (FontantNorth). Fans can catch live shows throughout BC and Alberta this Fall. Best described as "bluesy pop with an edge," Jessica's music appeals to a broad audience and has provoked fans to comment " it represents the moment you know things are going to get better". Jessica's connection to music started young, writing her first song at age five and anxiously awaiting a chance to tackle the ivories when her father rescued a piano from a church basement and refinished it in their garage. She grew up trying to emulate Annie Lennox, hitting the keys to Sam Cooke LP's and belting out next to Linda Ronstadt on the stereo. Her diverse musical tastes are evident in her dynamic songwriting as Jessica carves out her own unique brand of accessible and intelligent pop.
