He is a true artist, who really just loves making music for the world to hear. His debut album titled "The Intro" is a glimpse of what he can do on a bare-bones budget, recording at his own personal studio. J takes time with each song he works on. Some of the best compliments J Rice has received is that a person played the cd from start to finish without skipping a track. Most Cd's nowadays have 13-19 tracks, but you skip at least 8 of them (on a GREAT CD) leaving you with around 5 or 6 songs you listen to. Well, here's 10...Enjoy
