Details: "Alex Sandford: Back to the Light" is the first official studio album of Alex Sandford. Artist Bio: Alex Sandford got his start online as a commissioned vocalist for multiple artists, there he gained a general popularity. Alex had already been a composer, but the new interest had inspired him to begin writing contemporary songs rather than strictly classical works. He took his songs to the Open Mic scene in Arizona. There his fan-base and musical ambitions grew, and this is when most of "Back to the Light" was written. Alex then moved to California, keen to continue performing. After meeting with several artists and hearing success stories, he decided to record a studio album of his own. Album Notes: "Alex Sandford: Back to the Light" is a compilation of songs written by Alex Sandford from his high school years to present. The songs are arranged in a way so that they tell a story. The interpretation is purposefully left open so that the listener can relate easily. In genre, the songs range from pure Classical to Punk Rock to illustrate the vast range of life situations.
