Earthy pop, rock original album by singer/songwriter...new artist...new music. 11 MP3 Songs POP: with Live-band Production, GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel Details: Singer/songwriter, Leah Wood, graduated from Anderson University in 2002 with a B.A. in Music Business. At the age of 8, Leah and her family moved to Phoenix, Arizona, to plant Mountain Park Community Church. Leah had many opportunities to sing and lead worship at Mountain Park's youth service of 300+ students, Hot Church. She helped start and plan Open DooR, a vibrant Sunday night service for 200+ college students at Anderson University, and has been on Worship Arts planning teams for several churches in the Anderson area. Leah currently travels to churches, coffee houses, conventions and any where else they'll let her sing, every week sharing music from her new album, Broken Person, which was released in the fall of 2003. Leah's honesty and passion for life is evident in her music and lyrics.
