

Mp3 Joy Harjo - Winding Through The Milky Way

DOWNLOAD HERE

This is cool, indigenous, rock, jazz with the lyrics, saxophone, flutes and singing by poet Joy Harjo 12 MP3 Songs in this album (45:48) ! Related styles: WORLD: Native American, JAZZ: World Fusion People who are interested in Jim Pepper Ulali Mindi Abair should consider this download. Details: Harjos new CD of music, Winding Through the Milky Way marks the culmination of an ongoing dream. Harjo found her songs first through poetry, and published seven award winning books of poetry, including How We Became Human, New and Selected Poems. She picked up a saxophone in the late 80s and put together the band Joy Harjo and Poetic Justice. With the band she released her first CD Letter from the End of the Twentieth Century , now a classic. Two solo CDs followed: Native Joy for Real, and She Had Some Horses. Among Harjos honors are the Eagle Spirit Achievement Award for overall contributions in the arts, the New Mexico Governors Award for Excellence in the Arts and the Lifetime Achievement Award from the Native Writers Circle of the Americas. She performs internationally solo and with her new band. She premiered a reading of her one-woman show (with original music), Wings of Night Sky, Wings of Morning Light at the Public Theater in NYC in 2007. She co-wrote the signature film of the National Museum of the American Indian, A Thousand Roads. Harjo writes a column Comings and Goings for her tribal newspaper, the Muscogee Nation News. She lives mostly in Honolulu, Hawaii where she is a member of the Hui Nalu Canoe Club, and in Albuquerque, New Mexico.

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals: