2009-2010 Quick Facts Guide To Bluegrass Superstars The Smokey River Boys have been on MCA

Universal for three generations. Their careers have spanned three multi-platinum selling bluegrass albums that have as many award winning songs as they have sales to back up those songs. The Original Smokey River Boys were Lefty Jenkins, Luke Rogers, Sonny Wyatt and Bill Jackson. Today's band of superstar bluegrass heroes are Robert Metzgar, Stephen Hill, Woody Wright, and Doug Clements. They are the third generation to record for the famous label that was home to Bill Monroe for so many years and follow Mr. Monroe as the senior bluegrass group on the label. The group was nominated to the Bluegrass Hall Of Fame by Roy Clark and Willie Nelson. They were elected to the Legends Hall Of Fame in 2003 and currently have two albums in the Top-40 Billboard Bluegrass charts. The best selling albums that the Smokey River Boys are remembered by are Dueling Banjos, and Best Of Banjo which featured the boys along with Grandpa Jones, Lester Flatt Earl Scruggs and The Osborne Brothers. Today's new album entitled, O Brother is currently in the Top-40 (Soundscan verified) Billboard Bluegrass charts and has been every week since its release and continues to climb the Billboard Bluegrass charts as their other material has through the years. The new single, O Brother was the most requested new single in all radio formats according to Ken Berryhill of Vanderbilt University Radio for the debut week of September 10th. The new O Brother album was the best selling new bluegrass album for the Nashville Arbitron rated market for the week of the International Bluegrass Associations annual convention in October. The Smokey River Boys music has been endorsed by Hairl Hensley of WSM radio in Nashville, Tennessee which is the home of the Grand Ole Opry. The Smokey River Boys are proud sponsors of the Grand Ole Opry warm up show on WSM radio each Friday night prior to the Grand Ole Opry broadcast. They are sponsored nationally by Vanilla Coke, Wal-Mart Stores, GMC trucks, Gibson Guitars, and MCA Universal

Special Products. Simply log on to smokeyriverboys.com Music written by the Smokey River Boys is
