People who are interested in Los Van Van should consider this download. Details: Founded in New York City in 2005, PORNOSON is led by Cuban composer, bassist and lead vocalist Danny Rojo. Eddie Venegas joins on violin and trombone. Luisito Quintero backs on drums/percussion, with Larry Flint on percussion. Rounding out the band is Batanga on tres and electric guitars. PORNOSON began spreading its unique blend of AfroCuban rhythms, blazing guitar, electric strings, thumping bass and controversial lyrics in New York hotspots like Washington Heights' In Vino Veritas, Greenwich Village's Matador and the Lower East Side's Oliva, as well as taking part in the HavanaRumba concert series at various spots around the City. No one is really quite sure who christened PORNOSON. The debate continues to rage between the former band members Aaron Halba and Ariam Vazquez. But everyone in the band agrees that Pornoson started out as a typical Latin band playing traditional Cuban salsa music, also known as SON, in various New York and New Jersey venues. But as the mojitos and Cuba Libres flowed and the crowds got to their feet to dance, band leader Danny Rojo started changing the lyrics to these long-established tunes. The songs started taking a much sexier turn, with lyrics that raised eyebrows and drew cheers from the crowds. As fans found the new, "sexed-up" versions of the traditional Cuban SON far more entertaining, Rojo started to compose new songs -- songs about partying, rock and roll, and plenty of explicit, steamy sex. And, thus, PORNOSON was born. The sexual lyrics of PORNOSON have inspired as many haters as lovers, but even the haters agree that the music is fierce and unstoppable, and impossible NOT to groove to. And the more the lyrics stir up controversy, the more the fans clamor for more. PORNOSON's music comes with a parental advisory and the songs are definitely not for kids. PORNOSON's music speaks to all the true lovers of the world. The songs are about sex, love, music, partying, drinking and celebrating life. Sex is the ultimate expression of the joy of life, and no one expresses that joy better than PORNOSON. Searches:DANNY ROJO y PORNOSON
