Traffic Generation Principles - Video Series - Traffic generation is no mystery, no secret. Its mostly common sense and analytical process (meaning it can be fairly replicated with consistent results) Well, you will understand what I mean when I discuss traffic generation principles in the next slide - Then, Most people fail at driving traffic simply because they don't even try. And when I say try its not a set and forget trial, its a real commitment to include a technique into a broader plan and see how it brings more effectiveness to your efforts. A plan is simply a set of techniques that you implement and organize in order to achieve a goal. Its your blueprint for driving traffic. And this is an evolving and dynamic blueprint, meaning you will tweak it and improve it depending on your learning and testing curves.
