Perfect sentimental Mother's Day Song and Poem; a heartfelt duet sung to mothers for giving you the "things that matter." 2 MP3 Songs EASY LISTENING: Love Songs, POP: Delicate Details: Lynne Revo-Cohen is a composer and lyricist of ballads, jazz vocals, adult contemporary and children's music. "A Mother's Love" is based on a poem written to Lynne's mother for her 85th birthday to thank her for giving her children the "things that matter" - trust, hope, strength, and love. It is sung in a heartfelt duet by Danielle Westphal and Michael Sheppard, both superb vocalists and highly regarded performers in the Washington DC area. It is the perfect gift for mothers everywhere for Mother's Day or any occasion. The bonus track on the Mother's Love Album, "When You Fall," sung by Danielle Westphal, won the Silver Award in the 2006 Mid-Atlantic Song Contest. It is an inspirational song about love, loss, risk, and "knowing who to count on --- when you fall." When You Fall is the title track of Lynne's first CD, jazz vocals and love songs "from the heart." These songs will bring tears to your mother's eyes and let her know how much she means to you.
