Hot Water is an acoustic collaboration featuring a diverse group of musicians performing on unusual instruments from South Africa and around the world. Described as uplifting urban folk-fusion 10 MP3 Songs FOLK: Modern Folk, BLUES: Funky Blues Details: "HOT WATER" is fronted by talented singer-songwriter and facilitator Donovan Copley. It is collaborative band drawing on the talents of a diverse group of musicians to create dynamic and entertaining acoustic groove music with its roots in Africa. A central essence and vibe is maintained while appropriate musical collaborations are selected for each particular gig. Hot Water draws on original music, songs and lyrics with a uniquely South African feel and flavour, warming any event. The music roams the four seasons, with the overall "sound" ranging from atmospheric world instrumentals to African Blues to Jivey-Afro Rock. There'll also likely be some instruments at any Hot Water gig which you have never seen before... Hot Water has been going from strength to strength, building a fan-base and generating an infatuation with its unique concept and performance character. Combining unusual instruments from South Africa and around the world, this multicultural group creates a show at every performance, cutting across boundaries of age and culture. Humour plays an important role in both songs and character of performance, with the authentic groove often drawing people to their feet.
