An independent, Christian artist, Michael was born on July 22, 1964 in Charleston, South Carolina to Elder James and Apostle Helen Smith. Now residing with his wife in Virginia Beach, Virginia, he is the minister of music for Mount Sinai Church in Portsmouth, Virginia. November 8, 2005 was the official release date for Worship Of A Redeemed Man, the first solo project performed and produced by Michael. With the assistance of co-producers Ike Owens and Kasey Square, this project integrates passionate, heartfelt praise and worship with fresh, contemporary musical styling and a traditional, soulful Gospel flavor. Since its release, the project has been in rotation on several radio stations including: WFMI (Virginia Beach, VA) WXEZ (Virginia Beach, VA) WTJZ (Hampton, VA) WKUS (Norfolk, VA) WGPL (Norfolk, VA) WXTC (Charleston, SC) WVGB (Beaufort, SC) WBZF (Florence, SC) An organist/keyboardist for the past 28 years, Michael brought together an incredible band for this project including Kasey Square (keys, MD), Luther Chambers (keys), Christopher Hinton (organ), Wellington Boo Britt (Drums), A. J. Knight (Bass), Willie Riddick (Bass), Eric Howell (lead guitar) and Jonathan DuBose, Jr. (lead, rhythm and acoustic guitars). Using his extensive knowledge of Gospel and Christian music as well as his broad experience as a worship leader, Michael was able to produce a worship experience that ushers you to the foot of the cross. As an independent artist, Michael desires to bridge the gap between the Gospel and Contemporary Christian music genres. He endeavors to heed to the philosophy of cooking for the whole house. However, Michaels true audience is any person of any culture that loves to worship God. While many artists design their music to take the Gospel to the streets, Michaels conviction is that he has been commissioned to write music for the body of Christ. His music has been described as having universal appeal songs that will be sung in many languages around the world. (Jonathan DuBose, Jr.) Michaels sound has been compared to Israel Houghton (Mike Chandler Rejoice 100.9). His songwriting has been categorized as brilliant! (Russell Fragar Wave Church/Hillsong Music) His performance is passionate!
