More great sounds from East Africa, as Samba Mapangala draws listeners to the dance floor with his soaring vocals and smooth melodies, flavored with the warm guitars of Orchestra Virunga stalwarts Syran, Bopol, Caien and some new friends. 7 MP3 Songs WORLD: African, WORLD: World Traditions

Details: Samba Mapangala began his singing career in Kinshasa in the early 1970s. In 1975, he moved with other musicians to Kampala, where they formed the group Les Kinois. From 1977 to 1997, he was based in Nairobi, first with Les Kinois, then with his Orchestra Virunga, which he founded in 1981. Samba returns in 2006 to please his listeners once again, this time with the music of Song and Dance. We invite you to enjoy the sounds that have taken the airwaves of East Africa by storm, with tracks like Nyama Choma and Adija. Among those joining Samba to entertain you are guitarists Syran MBenza, Bopol Mansiamina, Caien Madoka and Dally Kimoko; Jimmy Mvondo on sax; Komba Bellow and Deba Sungu on drums and percussion; and Nyboma Mwandido and Dodo Munoko on vocals. In reviewing Sambas album Ujumbe, distinguished music critic Robert Christgau wrote, Everywhere he's gone, from Matadi to Kinshasa to Kampala to Nairobi to Paris to his safe Maryland home, Mapangala has brought along a tenor as sweet as a licked frenum and a tune sense that knows what it wants--no wonder he found the sway of Swahili swing so amenable. Experience what everyone is talking about. Take a listen to Song and Dance, and dance geukatern round and round!
