Details: Red Snow has evolved into one of L.A.s unique hard rock bands and continues to create music on many different levels. Lina Mantashian fuels the newly evolved Red Snow on vocals. She is well known throughout Europe and is the newest element/member adding a new found energy and spirit to the band. Vahe Marzbetuny is often praised as a lyrical, soulful guitarist and is the heart and soul of the band. He has recorded with Serj Tankian and Arto Tuncboyadjian on the CD entitled "Serart" on a song called "Devils Wedding". Vahe along with his brother Zareh, both were members of a successful rock band in the 90's called "Mach 1." Their debut Mach 1 CD is still selling worldwide. Zareh Marzbetuny is a skilled bass player with a unique ability to play a wide range of styles. His crisp, round earth-shaking sound fills a room. His firm rhythm makes him one of the most in-demand bassists around. He's a funny guy with funny things to say and plays some burnin bass riffs. Shant "Ruckus" Sarkissian on drums adds an incredible rhythmic backbone. He has a knack for placing the right sound in the right places. His use of space and his energy is amazing. Another fine example of a drummer whos playing is complete self-expression. Jack "Mr.White" Kurdian shows his ability to mix his assorted keyboards and synths (strings, textures, piano) in songs that are accessible yet (at times) free-flowing enough to be quasi-ambient. He has brought a unique style of his own to Red Snow. Narek Stepanian (aka "The Apprentice") has been added as a key figure in the current make-up of Red Snow. He is a very talented bass and guitar player/songwriter who formerly played in the band "Non-EyE. In 2004/2005 Red Snow released 2 self-produced EPs with acclaimed vocalist LaLa Avedis. Showtime Motel, was nominated for Best Rock Album at the Armenian Music Awards in 2004. Dragonfly (2005) received rave reviews and earned them a performance in the 2005 Armenian Music Awards at the world famous Hollywood Palladium. Red Snow ended the year with several explosive shows at venues such as The Whisky, B.B. Kings, The Henry Fonda (Musicbox Theatre), and a benefit concert to help raise money for the victims of Hurricane Katrina at Glendale High School. Currently, Red Snow is in the studio recording, and will release their new cd entitled "Perfect Nowhere", which promises to push the envelope creatively and add to a catalog of great songs.
