A refreshing and uplifting new phenomenon in the genre of harmonica bands. The use of harmonica for Finnish folk music has got a totally new direction with sound of SVNG. 12 MP3 Songs WORLD: Eastern European, JAZZ: Ragtime Details: The harmonica has been important instrument for Finnish folk players since 1850s. Besides traditional Finnish harmonica style SVNG takes influences of music from all around the world: The unique sounding quartet plays Finnish tango and folk music, but takes also influences of groovy Balkan-style, Swedish hambo as well as old time -fiddle dance tunes or rag time. Big part of the repertuar is original works by the band members. The combining element in this unique mixture of styles is the original groove created by the rare chord harmonica Harmonetta and the ultimate low bass harmonica. On the swinging groove the two virtuoso soloists create rich melodies with their diatonic and chromatic harmonicas with a strong, improvising attitude and joy of playing! The aim of SVNG is to give a new life to the extraordinary sound of harmonica band with music that has not been played on this kind of band before. The debut cd of SVNG has succesfully captured the fascinating feel of their energetic live performances. SVNG: Eero Turkka chromatic and diatonic harmonicas Eero T. started Svng together with his former teacher Jouko Kyhl. Eero has composed major part of SVNG repertuar. Besides harmonica he plays several other ethnic instruments and sings in multiple bands. Eero Grundstrm chromatic and diatonic harmonicas Eero G. is also a multi-instrumentalist, composer and improviser wizard. He is the most well known experimental harmonium player in Finland. Jouko Kyhl chord harmonica Harmonetta, chromatic and diatonic harmonicas Jouko is a teacher of harmonica, improvisation, band work etc. at the Sibelius Academy folk music department. At the moment he is making his doctoral studies of harmonica for the Sibelius Academy music university. In a couple of years he will become the first doctor of harmonica in Finland, maybe even Europe. Jouko appears as a musician and composer in several bands and on over 15 cds of different groups. Pasi Leino bass harmonica Pasi is the grand old man of Finnish bass harmonica players. He used to play in the famous Raimo Sirki harmonica quartet in 1980s and early 90s. The group won the European championship of harmonica bands in Trossingen, Germany.
