A sweet mix of melodic pop punk with a honky tonk flavor. It's clear that the songs are written to please peers such as John Doe, Cash, and pop punk bands like the Descendants yielding an appealing post punk sound. This record has sweet melodies. 12 MP3 Songs ROCK: Folk Rock, ROCK: Punk Details: Mulch, the band, has been around since forming in 1993. They have always made an attempt to blend a power pop sound with honky tonk, yielding a unique alt-country sound. Although the members have changed over the years, they still have been able to stay focused on their vision of bridging the gap, putting out two albums and plans for a third coming in 2006. Mulch has been featured on various videos and television including ESPN on a special segment for Dave Mirra, Video Groove in-line skate videos, and numerous surfing videos. They were also a house band at the Galaxy Theater and Coach House for a minor league wrestling for ECW and WWF. Their music has also been featured in various commercial segments for radio stations. The original lineup included Snidley, Randy Edgerly, and Scraps as the core, initially with Lora and Jason Thornberry on drums for the 13 Dayz record, and finally, Armondo Del Rio making contributions on drums for the Reasons to Quit record. The current lineup features the original singer and songwriter, Brad Grit(aka Snidley), on guitar and vocals. Grit has always been the creative force behind Mulch and has penned several notable songs over the years, including Greener Skies(R. Edgerly- Lyrics), Dear Aunt Rosie, and Pinata. On the drums is Jerry Lee who has had previous touring experience with a band called the Ditch Bank Oakies, of which he was a founding member. On the bass guitar is Jason Carmen aka Cousin Carms. His previous gigging experience was in a punk rock outfit called Broken Gavel who had a short run in the O.C.. The new lineup has been busy in 2006 preparing for the release of their third album which will be released in late 2006. Players on Reasons To Quit include: Snidley on vocals guitar, Scraps on guitar, Randy Edgerly on bass, and Armondo Del Rio on the drums.
