A rap-country hybrid from the cult classic film "Dead and Breakfast." 10 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Country Rock, HIP HOP/RAP: Hip Hop Details: The 2005 Ambush Entertainment comedy/horror film "Dead and Breakfast" introduced the world to the comedic talents of Zach Selwyn and the original musical composition of his country-hip-hop band ZACHARIAH and the LOBOS RIDERS. Selwyn is featured throughout the film performing transitional musical numbers and narrating the action as it plods along. Director Matthew Leutwyler commissioned Selwyn and his band to write and perform three original songs for the film as well as the transitional pieces. The result was "Were Comin To Kill Ya," "Quiet Little Town" and "Possessed (Is The Way To Be). Selwyn performed the transitional pieces during the filming of the movie in 2003. The film premiered at the 2004 South by Southwest Film Festival and garnered immediate release from Ambush Entertainment. It has won many awards and the official website is dandbfilm.com. "The film is constructed like a cross between NIGHT OF THE LIVING DEAD and THERE'S SOMETHING ABOUT MARY. Noted songwriter Zach Selwyn provides laugh out loud songs throughout the film similar in the way the Farrelly Brothers used musicians within THERE'S SOMETHING ABOUT MARY performing their own songs." - Mantaraypictures.com Zachariah's first full-length record "Ghost Signs" is available at cdbaby.com/zachariah visit Zachariah's website at zachariahmusic.com myspace.com/zachariahandthelobosriders Buy "Dead and Breakfast" on DVD Today!
