Inspirational smooth jazz originals featuring warm saxophone and relaxed rhythms. 8 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Smooth Jazz, GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel Details: Zoe', a Gospel Jazz Group from South Jersey was organized in January 2001. The group consists of seven talented musicians whose melodic compositions produce extraordinary music. The group enjoys creating and performing their own material. This upcoming group feels the anointing their music and displays free spiritual expression in their performance. Zoe' consists of Reginald Harris, Saxophonist songwriter, Cleveland Belin, Jr., Keyboardist songwriter, Ronald Segers, Guitarist songwriter., David Ferebee, Drummer; Maurice Fonville, Bass songwriter, Bolivar (Chico) Guadalupe, Percussionist songwriter and vocalist Lillian(Lill)Kollock our new kid on the block. One objective of the group is to minister to the audience as well as perform for them They very focused on the Lord. Each musician in the group has played for various churches throughout Cumberland County, surrounding areas of South Jersey, and the Philadelphia area. The group of Christian men would periodically merge their talents to honor benefit requests of the local church community. The group continued to rehearse for the pure enjoyment of it; finally coming to realize the potential of the creative talent at hand as well as shared goals and objectives. The addition of a dynamic female vocalist further enhanced their capabilities. Zoe' undertook it's first recording endeavor in May 2001; with their first CD, entitled "Long Time" released June 2001. Founder and President of Zoe', Reginald Harris, says the group has aspirations of becoming full time musicians, traveling worldwide and eventually produce other talented groups.
