Dazzling power punk that you can't turn your head at- If you like Naked Raygun, The Jam, The Buzzcocks then you need this album. 12 MP3 Songs ROCK: Punk, ROCK: Modern Rock Details: The CD, titled Torch Songs, features 12 tracks of all original material that relives yet updates the anthemic, sing-along style made popular by front man Jeff Pezzati's former group, Naked Raygun. The music, both hard hitting and yet infectiously "poppy" appeals to the novice Beach Boys fan as well as the savvy, hard sell Bohemian type. Lyrically, the majority of the tracks touch on the subject of forsaken love and love lost, lending an expanded meaning to the idea of a torch singer. "The disk's 12 tracks are engorged with delicious melodies buried under a tonnage of huge-sounding guitars (courtesy of John Maxwell), sing along choruses and gigantic vocals all pummeled into submission by Paul Garcia's malicious-intent drumming." Chicago Tribune, October 13, 2000 Six of the songs were recorded with long time friend Steve Albini at Electrical Audio, his Chicago studio. Four tracks were scribed at One Room Studio in Wilmington, IL with pop-meister Dave Zuchowski. In the words of Maxwell, "This is good news for the rock world." The Torch Songs CD is the first release for the Chicago based upstart Jettison Music label
