Catchy vocal tracks with tight uplifting harmonies. 8 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel, WORLD: African Details: The First Place Winner of the 2006 Songwriting competition at the Babbie Mason Music Conference International, Charity Zisengwe is a multi talented self- harmonizing singer, highly gifted songwriter and a dynamic speaker, who has been singing and speaking since she was in high school. Born and raised in Zimbabwe, Charity Zisengwe formed an acappella trio in high school, which subsequently grew to a mass choir of more than 50 richly harmonized voices. Her gift of music went on to open doors for her to share the word of God through speaking engagements. She has been invited to sing and/or speak at Womens events, private events, church services and conferences. God has blessed her with a tremendous measure of grace that is highly visible during her ministrations. Charity's humility, sincerity and sweet spirit allow the anointing of God to move through her without interference. Charity has recently recorded her self-titled debut CD, with one of the songs on the CD clinching the first place win at the 2006 Babbie Mason Music Conference International.
