She wrote music ,lyrics and also produced all the tracks on the maxi single with a close friend and co-producer Michele Monestiroli. Already a # 1 hit in Italy the song is about learning lessons and how life tests you and how we fight everyday trying to be stronger while believing in ourselves. Its a very hot pop song with some electronic influences and inspired by great international pop artists like of Madonna and Kylie Minogue. She is an artist who has a very open-minded creativity. Anticonventional and trasgressive sometimes. As an artist she intends to carry on with her dream writing good music all over the world as much as she can, writing her own lyrics and music and producing herself with the best producers around, friends and artists. In the past collaborated with The London Session Orchestra, Billy Steinberg (author of "Like a Virgin"), Hugh Burns (George Michael's guitarist). The video of Nothing at all was filmed in London, a city that she loves and in which she goes very often to follow the studies of Kabbalah that started one year ago. Part of the money raised from the Nothing at all project will be donated to Raising Malawi. Last summer in Chicago during a Kabbalah seminar Chiara met a woman who lives and works in Malawi and from that experience she decided to do something for the orphans from this land of Africa.
