Inspiring and emotional classic piano solos composed by a 6 year old composer. Calming and heart-warming in their style - she paints pictures with her music. 10 MP3 Songs EASY LISTENING: Mood Music, NEW AGE: Neo-Classical Details: Emily is 6 years old and studies piano with Emilio delRosario / Soo Young Lee at the Music Institute of Chicago (MIC), jazz improvisation with Alan Swain, and composition with Donald Fraser. Emily is equally comfortable playing jazz, classical and her own compositions as is shown by her diverse and extensive concert repertoire. Emily received national attention when she was a featured guest on The Ellen Degeneres Show. She appeared on 3 episodes in three and a half months: October 3rd and November 23, 2007 and January 8th, 2008. Emily made her professional debut performing a solo concert at the Ravinia Music Festival in July, 2007 when she was 5 years old. She played a solo 40 minute program mixing classical, jazz and her own compositions. She is the youngest performer in Ravinias more than 100 year history. She has recently been asked back to perform there again this coming September 7, 2008. On March 24th, 2008, Emily was invited to perform at The White House for The Easter Egg Roll breakfast for President and Mrs. Bush. She performed a 30 minute solo concert mixing jazz and original compositions, followed by 2 songs played especially for President and The First Lady. Emily was a recipient of a 2008 ASCAP Morton Gould Young Composer Competition award for her original song, Northern Lights. She was one of 9 winners in the 18 year old and younger category out of a field of almost 600 applicants. She was asked to be one of two pianists to perform at the awards ceremony. In January, Emily was asked by Steinway and Sons to perform a solo concert at the Chicago film premier of the new documentary film "Note by Note: the Making of Steinway L1037". She performed the concert on the actual piano built in the movie. Emily opened for Ramsey Lewis and his Trio on October 17th, 2007, playing a 30 minute solo piano concert. Emily also appeared at The Raue Center for the Arts this December 9th in a featured solo concert. She opened The 2007 McDonalds Chicago Thanksgiving Day Parade (which was televised nationally on WGN) performing her original song Waterlights. Emily made her orchestral debut in front of a capacity audience of 2500 people performing her original song, The Love in Us with The Orlando Symphony Orchestra at a private corporate event in April, 2008. Emily also performed at the 2007 MIC Gala where she played a jazz set at the Celebrity Piano Bar along with renowned musicians Ramsey Lewis, Corky Segal and Wez Kaufman. This May she was asked to play on the main stage as a featured performer at the 2008 MIC Gala. Emily loves to perform with the Jodi Beach Jazz Trio and was the opening performer for The KIDSTOCK Music Festival at the Wilmette Theater. She was also featured at a Young Peoples Concert for MIC. Upcoming concerts include performing Mozarts Piano Concerto, no.23, k488 in March, 2009 with The Rockford Symphony Orchestra and in April, 2009 with The Champagne-Urbana Symphony. Emily will perform a concert in February, 2009 at the Music in the Loft Concert Series. Emily recorded her first CD, Five Years Wise, in July of 2007. The CD is a mixture of jazz standards and original songs. A second CD, The Love In Us, featuring 10 original songs (including the 3 that she debuted on The Ellen Degeneres Show), was released in April, 2008. She is a member of ASCAP and AFTRA.
