Details: Genevieve Jereb, OTR, is an Australian-born pediatric occupational therapist who has lectured on sensory processing disorders, both nationally and internationally. Most recognized as a childrens singer and songwriter, Genevieve uses the principles of sensory processing theory to create music, songs and rhythmic activities for children with attention, motor and regulation difficulties. Jumpin' Jellybeans is inspired by and dedicated to Gen's Cabin 12 Kids at Camp Avanti in Wisconsin, this new collection keeps kids involved in directed activities to enhance attention and alertness, provide rhythmic entrainment, improve body awareness, and strengthen overall patterns of respiration. And kids will have loads of fun along the way! The 24-page full color booklet includes lyrics to all the songs, with many activities detailed in the text alongside. Highlights include the stretching exercises built in to Starfish (Im as tall as a tree [stand tall with hands shooting above head] / Im as wide as a bridge [lift arms horizontal]), the barnyard sounds of Party Til The Cows Come Home (We're gonna shoo in the sheep [baa baa] / Hustle up the horses [blow through lips]) that deepen the breath, and the deep bodywork built-in to Push My Blues Away. With Jumpin' Jellybeans, Gen Jereb and Friends once again combine light-hearted, fun musical arrangements with solid sensory processing principles and an Aussie twist. I am an Occupational Therapist working with special needs children in Ottawa. I heard Gen's first CD a year ago (had never heard of her before) and was so impressed that I attended her workshop in Montreal last May. Was just as impressed with the workshop as the CD. I purchased her other CD's and spread them throughout the classes in the two schools where I work. All of the teachers love them!! Gen told me she thought her best CD was Jumpin' Jellybeans so I ordered it as soon as it was available. I must say, I agree with her although I find them all to be fabulous. As I walk through the Special Needs school I hear her music coming from every classroom. I showed the Principal the latest CD and she ordered one for every class!!

The CD's have even filtered into the regular kindergarden and Grade 1 classes. Thank you Gen!! -- a teacher from Ottawa, Ontario Canada
