Details: Drew K is a very talented singer, songwriter and recording artist from New York City. Taking his music to the streets of Manhattan, he quickly became one of NYCs premier street artists, regularly attracting crowds in the hundreds. Drew K sold as many as 10,000 units of his initial recording projects, The Simple Man and Dont Say Goodbye. These two albums have been repackaged and released as All The Old Stuff Complete and is currently available for purchase and downloading from cdbaby.com Today, Drew K is working on his new project, The Master Plan, to be released in mid 2008. Employing the talents of one of NYCs finest producers, Bruce Whitcomb, The Master Plan is a throwback to the all time great concept records of the past. With a current musical style, infectious groove and relevant lyrics, The Master Plan is destined to be Drew Ks signature release. Youll want to play this album from beginning to end, over and over again.
