The Neptunes (N.E.R.D) Drum Kits NOTE: I AM THE COPYRIGHT PRODUCER OF THESE SAMPLES

The Neptunes Biography The Neptunes quietly emerged from Virginia Beach at the turn of the century and quickly became the hottest producers within the rap industry, then the entire pop music industry. The peerless duo began their ascendance in the late '90s with a few party-themed hits: Ol' Dirty Bastard's "Got My Money" (1999), Mystikal's "Shake Ya Ass" (2000), and Jay-Z's "I Wanna Love U" (2001). The Neptunes crossed over from rap to pop in 2001 and began producing tracks for the likes of Britney Spears ("I'm a Slave 4 U"), NSYNC ("Girlfriend"), and Usher ("U Don't Have to Call"). In addition to these pop stars, the duo continued producing hits for the biggest names in rap, working with everyone from LL Cool J ("Luv U Better") and Busta Rhymes ("Pass the Courvoisier") to Bow Wow ("Take Ya Home") and Nelly ("Hot in Herre"). Furthermore, the Neptunes began their own rap-rock group, N.E.R.D., and introduced another one, the Clipse. By this point, the duo -- Pharrell Williams and Chad Hugo -- had become the pop-rap industry's most demanded producers, on a par with other big-name producers like Dr. Dre and Timbaland, if not perhaps even supplanting them. Their debut album, Neptunes Present... Clones (2003), confirmed their across-the-board popularity, topping Billboard's album chart and moving roughly 250,000 units during its first week. Amid all of this success, they continued to churn out hits, most notably alongside Justin Timberlake ("Rock Your Body") and Snoop Dogg ("Beautiful") as well as for their longtime standbys (Jay-Z's "Excuse Me Miss") and even themselves (Pharrell's "Frontin'"). These sounds were recorded and designed by professional engineers using Pro Tools for the best sample quality available. These samples have been processed with Waves processing tools and SSL compressors for more impact and presence in your musical creations. Many drum libraries tend to have overused fx, have digital distortion and lack clarity as well as the natural sounds that some of our favorite producers have come to use. Our samples are carefully picked, recorded, and fully analyzed to ensure that they are clear of these faults and have more live sounding feel which is credited to the drum sets, sound modules, and samplers which are widely used by award winning producers. You will notice the difference once you apply these sounds to your musical works and you will not regret it. This product is delivered digitally, so once the purchase is made you can get to making your hits immediately afterwards! Not only does this give the product as fast as your internet connection can provide, but it also saves you $money$ on shipping and handling charges.
