Original, funny and sincere songs --and a few mandolin/banjo instrumentals-- about the great game of Golf, featuring soulful bluegrass and old-time country harmonies. 11 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Country Blues, COUNTRY: Bluegrass Details: "Yes, I have a load of old putters and drivers in my garage. And I have a basement full of mandolins and fiddles. My passion for early bluegrass and old-time music found an original outlet a couple winters ago as I waited for the Montana snows to melt and the golf courses to green, so I wrote these songs about the good walked spoiled." This singer/songwriter/golfer has played in bluegrass bands for over 20 years and currently plays mandolin in the band "Mountain Groan". He has also released a very popular collection of songs for children and parents entitled "Pumpkin Pie For Breakfast." Brian lives in Missoula, MT with his wife and two children.
