Legendary twangbusters Bill Bonney and Pete "Buzz" Miller team up for a session of sizzling brand-new instrumentals, similar to The Shadows or The Spotnicks. 12 MP3 Songs ROCK: Surf Rock, ROCK: Instrumental Rock Details: Bonney Buzz - Rock-Ola CD Two UK guitar legends from the 60's are together for the first time on this fabulous new CD. Rock-Ola features Bill Bonney of The Fentones ("The Mexican" and "The Breeze I") and Pete "Buzz" Miller ("Can Can 62" and "Totem Pole"). Buzz was also half of the Shig Buzz project that released the CD Double Diamonds on Shag's Mai Tai Records label in the mid-90's. Rock-Ola contains twelve more "diamonds", with a smooth, deep Euro-instro sound not too removed from The Shadows, but dense with mystery and intrigue. Tracks: The Sunburst Kid - Thunderbird Road - Drawn To The Sea - Summerstar - Bandido - Land Of The Blackhearts - Doodlebug - Bubble Squeak - Cruise Six - Red Light Zone - Black Knickers - Electroglide. Here's what the press has said about 'Rock-Ola': Bonney Buzz "Rock-Ola" (Double Crown Records) Anyone with even a vague awareness of rock and roll music already knows that England in the early sixties was where the action was. Which brings us to The Fentones and The Jaywalkers
