Details: "Jan Spillane is an energetic singer/songwriter from Savannah, Georgia. Her eclectic blues/R&B songs are poetic timeless. Inspired by the world around her, she finds music in every corner and in every person she meets." As much as she loves performing, her true passion all time high is in writing the lyrics and composing the music. At the tender age of five, she began writing lyrics, composing music on piano, singing, and had her first studio session at age eight. Coming from a long line of family musicians, it was no surprise that she would make music her life. Some of her all time favorite musicians which she credits to her love of music include Joni Mitchell, Janis Joplin, Patti LaBelle, Carley Simon, Carole King, Annie Lennox, Sting, Van Morrison, Paul Simon, Don Henley, Bruce Cockburn, Bread, Emerson Lake Palmer, Chicago, The Doobie Brothers, The Allman Brothers, Janis Ian, Paul McCartney, John Lennon, and many others. Captivating her audiences with her well-crafted lyrics, soulful voice, and eclectic style, you can tell she loves what she does. She produced her first CD Gut Feeling in 1998. The positive reaction to Gut Feeling was just the beginning. In December of 2001, she released another CD 2nd Nature, produced by Phil Hadaway. Though Gut Feeling received outstanding reviews, 2nd Nature proved to be one of her most innovative, perceptive, powerful CD's to date until her recent CD Painting the Blues - released June 2006, produced by Kevin Rose.....With all songs written by Jan, she believes that this CD's personality is much attributed to all the talented musicians that played on it, including Ben Wells, Annie Allman, Kevin Rose, Miles Hendrix, Marc Cordray, Allen Andrews, Tommy Butler. Spillane has high hopes to see another CD completed by the end of 2007, currently untitled... Jan performs solo as well as with her longtime friends and talented musicians, Annie Allman, Ben Wells, Marc Cordray John Banks. "Known for her kind heart, Annie Allman is first cousin to The Allman Brothers - from Louisiana to Chicago to Georgia, this lady is known as a multi-instrumentalist, playing guitar, bass, percussion - her style is energetic with a pure Chicago blues sound. Ben Wells has spent the past 12 years playing music in one form or another across Georgia. His blonde Martin guitar has seen the insides of barrooms, theatres, and other various venues from Rome to Tybee Island. Along the way, he has been fortunate to meet and perform with a vast array of musicians who have taught him that there is little more precious than good folk and good music - - "he's a good man and a damn good guitar player, to boot!" Marc Cordray holds a baccalaureate degree from Berklee School of Music and completed his graduate studies at New England Conservatory. Marc has served as the backbeat for innumerable jazz, rock, blues, funk, and R&B groups and has performed as a percussionist in orchestral and popular settings. Marcs intricate ability is balanced by the subtlety with which he uses it. John Banks (bio pending). Aside from Annie Allman, Ben Wells, Marc Cordray, and John Banks, Spillane has shared the stage with quite a few great artists including Dan Seals, Greg Williams, Mike Stewart, George Reeves, Craven Melon, Ansel Daniel, Kevin Rose, Drivin-n-Cryin, Jay Hackney, Mike Bullock, Gordon Perry, Darryel Wise, Johnnie Kennedy, Allen Andrews, Denny Braun, Pete Love, Denny Phillips, D.T. Faircloth, Michael McDougald, Bobby Erickson, Hal Stamey, C.J. Perrine, Barr Nobles, Hal Millard, Bob Blumenthal, and many others.
