She emanates a holy gift of Celestial Mystical Outpourings through her presence, sacred texts, prayers and divine song that are born from realms beyond this earth. "She has a beautiful presence and talent to be known by millions of people all over the world. Her voice brings peace and harmony to everybody on this earth." Mustafa C. Comlekcioglu "Sarah West is one of the leading experts in human transformation. She uses music and yoga in order to bring a larger consciousness of life and purposes to people everywhere. She is not only a sensitive visionary but she also understands the practical problems of life in the troubled world. I hope she will participate in the Social Summit organized by the United Nations from 5 March in Copenhagen, Denmark, where at least 20,000 governmental and non-governmental delegates are meeting in order to plan for a new social order beyond 1995. This conference would benefit greatly from the participation of Ms. West." Rashmi Mayur, Ph.D, President Global Futures Network, Bombay, India United Nations Social Scientist "When I was in New York City recently, I had an amazing experience. At a service I attended, a young woman named Sarah West got up and sang one song. It was a song without words, and I never had heard anything like it before. All I can say is that it sounded like the Original Sound of God. It came through Sarah and was the clearest and most powerful spiritual call I have ever heard. I thought I was going to dissolve right on the spot. Hearing Sarah's singing is hearing the Sound of Eternity." A.C. Bushnell "Her voice, her sounds, her tones, her songs, are the echoes of the origins of the One frequency. Her singing carries the resonance, the truth, the purity, the divinity of the beginning, the history of humankind. She sings all beings' heart song, all beings' original language: Wholeness. She is a facilitator, a guide, a beacon, a light that shines, reflecting the personal journey of humanity. When she sings, she effortlessly aligns soul to soul with each person. Her singing is not a performance, but a communion, a sacred meeting. She channels each soul's, each elements, unique call opening a portal for the being to explore their infinite essence...She is the teacher of the angel inside.... Her singing transmutes separation into oneness, forgiveness replaces rage, each person feels that they are known, they are accepted, they float and fly in the love. She wants each person to know they are home. Spirits gather to bask in the glow of the angel of the infinite love." Oriana "The soul of All That Is singing through Sarah West creates a resonant vibration that gently opens the portals of the heart. With the portals of the heart wide open the room immediately fills with the energy of the Eternal Self , Soul-Essence, wherein all present may taste of the divine banquet. Anchoring of this collective consciousness attunes those present to the highest vibrations of pure love and the personal truths it embodies." - Sheridan Marie "Our spirit can be touched in a way that's beyond the mind, its beyond the intellect, beyond words, beyond lectures and stories and so, even beyond a regular song. What comes through me, and what I feel I am here to offer is the experience of Peace, through the vehicle of the instrument of sacred sound. It is not about singing a song with words that you know with your intellect, but rather, something that is soul, that touches your soul, that is more from a place beyond boundaries, of a language, of what country your from and what language you speak. It touches your soul essence and gives you the experience of stillness, serenity, and of what we call the music of the spheres and the songs of the angels. Our voice is an instrument; it's a delivery system of God... and of our own unique Soul expression and how we share Love and how we share who we are. It has the ability to express harmony and Peace, whether its in a prayer said within our self or spoken aloud. Do not underestimate the power of our own prayers. They are powerful. The word is the Deed, is the Form." Sarah, quote from the Angel of Peace VIDEO "She shimmered ethereal, like an apparition of a divine form. Her voice, a sine wave bridging manifest creation with angelic realms, celestial light. We sat transported, transfigured, by her hymns, poetry and divine dance of ecstasy... "Sarah's voice seems to pick up where choir-like voices echoing of vaulted stone cathedral walls, leave off. Her tones seemed to me to follow from the lineage of Gregorian chant, but somehow they are just more pure, and I felt as if I was hearing sounds from transcendent worlds that could only be heard in places where the vibrational quality of the audience permitted divine expression on earth." Stephen Harper, Review "The voice has the ability to heal all. As we pray, sing, chant, tone, we purify our consciousness as well as our physical body, for as our cells, DNA, atoms, organs, blood, vibrate to this Call - we circulate a new consciousness, we embody Truth, massaging from the inside of our beings - harnessing an enlightened consciousness. It is powerful - these tones - delicate, pure, fierce and fiery, still and calm, luminous and blazing, harmonizing and unifying! Essential!! The tones purify, uplift, refine - unifying our self, Calling in all fragments through one simple tone - calling in, aligning, harnessing the Self for the Self. "The new tool for our coming ages. Ancient yet re-awakened - like our true Self that always Is." - Sarah West, excerpted from Pure Sound
