The trio voices and main instruments are; Juan Quiles Sr. 1st voice and bass. Juan Q. lived in Boston, MA for many years, he is also a sound engineer and works with electronics. Jose Allende 2nd voice and guitar, and Juan Gomez 3rd voice and requinto, both have extensive knowledge of music and have played for many years in different trios in New York and Chicago. Our mission is to spread the Word of God with our music. We are totally committed in giving our best talents to God and his people. The meaning of the word gape is basically Love but not any love, but rather the Love of God. It was also used to mean a meeting of friend in love with God. We are a group of brothers in Christ together in the Great Love of God and we transmit that Love through our music.
