She leads chanting programs with musical accompaniment, and offers meditation instruction and teachings about living a spiritual life. Her focus is teaching courses about loving the experience of your voice, and using your voice as a meditative tool to transform and uplift. Dev Suroop Kaur specializes in training teachers of Kundalini Yoga in the science of Naad Yoga, conscious communication, and how to teach others to access the beauty and power of their personal voice. After much searching and longing for a deeply spiritual lifestyle, Dev Suroop Kaur discovered the practice of Kundalini Yoga in the autumn of 1983 and met her spiritual teacher, Yogi Bhajan, Master of Kundalini Yoga, soon thereafter. Thus began a long and full journey of spiritual practice, study and development as a spiritual musician, teacher and executive. Dev Suroop Kaur has been a lifelong student of many forms of western music and has been blessed to participate in intensive studies of Indian Classical Music with Bhai Avtar Singh and Bhai Kultar Singh of New Delhi, India. She balances her life as an executive, wife of 22 years, musician, yoga teacher and Certified Kundalini Yoga Teacher Trainer. She earned her MBA from the Claremont Graduate University and works in New Mexico as a corporate executive.
