Singer/songwriter with an easy and sophisticated mix of pop, jazz, and bossa nova sound. 11 MP3 Songs

JAZZ: Bossa Nova, POP: Delicate Details: Carmen Cuesta - Loeb set the pace for her album "Peace Of Mind" by working together with such top studio musicians as Chuck Loeb, Will Lee, Wolfgang Haffner and Bob James. Icing on the cake for her brand of "sophisticated pop" are the solos delivered by such jazz stars as Toots Thielemans, Bill Evans and Till Brnner. Alongside a number of her own compositions in a relaxed, atmospheric vein, jewels like the heart-rendering title song "Peace Of Mind", the catchy "Paralelo" or the romantic ballad "Bells", there are two cover versions in particular that stand out on the list of tracks. With an arrangement strongly influenced by Sting, the master of intelligent pop music, Carmen Cuesta puts an exciting twist into her interpretation of his tune "Shape Of My Heart". The Beatles are also accorded due reverence in her version of "Here Comes The Sun".

Press Quotes: Jazz Dimensions: "Easy ... but sophisticated. A brilliant mixture of Pop and Jazz." SAT 1 TV: "Songs that are absolutely addictive." Stereoplay: "Between Latin beats, grooving Fusion-Jazz and sophisticated Pop songs, this American vocalist is well-versed in using her markedly sensual timbre to set the scene for her music." Ya - Com Spain: "Peace Of Mind" es un album mucho ... , mejor producido, variado en cuanto a la tematica ... , brillante en su resultado final. In Music: "Aspiring Pop songs that breathe just the right dose of Jazz feeling."
