Will Ray / The Hellecasters Rich Seversons new album is a delight. The vibe ranges from lush Johnny Smith like chord voicings to Howard Roberts type gun slinging jazz flurries. A good time is had by both the musicians and the listener! Muriel Anderson / Artist Rich Severson's new CD is a jazz lover's cup of tea. Clean and elegant straight ahead jazz by guys who know their stuff. Mitch Holder / Studio guitarist / Author Rich Severson is a guitarist of many accomplishments along with being one of the most highly regarded educators in the country with his highly respected website,GuitarCollege.com. The Wes Side of Heaven, contains a selection of choice standards as well as the title tune, written by Severson and two originals tunes by bassist Todd Johnson. Listen as Rich and his musical co-horsts journey through refreshing treatments and fine improvisations by Rich, Todd and drummer Gary Newmark. Rich certainly gives tribute to a trio of demi-gods, Wes Montgomery, Joe Pass and Ted Greene. The magic comes as Rich inflects his own style and presence rather than just copying these players licks. This collection of great melodies is a great reflection of where jazz guitar is going and Rich and his musical comrades have given us a wonderful musical tour. Hopefully we will hear more from this fine trio Steve Trovato / Artist / Educator / Author This CD killed me. I never cease to be amazed at how Rich can play so sensitively one minute and blast seamlessly through furious tempos the next. Bravo.
