The debut CD titled "Tickets In The Glove Box" featured Mississippi guitar legend Mel Brown and Canada's ace guitarist Pete Schmidt. The CD earned the band a Maple Blues nomination for "New Artist Of The Year" and has already sold through the first release and is now in it's second pressing. Vocalist/harmonica player Bob Chorney, leads the band through a number of obscure blues covers and a healthy dose of their own brand of 1950's inspired blues. This recording is a must for all serious blues fans that desire more than just another Stevie Ray Vaughan mimic.
