Details: Tom Footes debut CD, Drum Like An Animal has fun, upbeat original songs, African melodies and traditional rhythms layered under elements of world music, jazz, funk, R&B, and pop that will get you drumming, dancing, and singing along! With influences such as Peter Gabriel, Issa Bagayogo, Stevie Wonder and Putumayo Kids artists, Drum Like An Animal is infectious and great for all ages. About the Songs: Funga Alafia Walk on the wild side with this cool, Peter Gabriel-style arrangement of a Liberian melody featuring the rhythm Fanga. You can dance or grab a drum and play along! Drum Like An Animal Inspired from the Malian rhythm Dansa, this original song is totally fun, has an infectious groove and was written for my daughters "pet" chimpanzee Monk-Monk. Africa Oh Africa My djembe teacher Moussa Traore heard this song and said, This song is going to make you famous! This catchy melody and dance beat, derived from the Malian rhythm Suku, is my way of honoring Africa, and its people. Siyahamba This popular South African song, sung in choirs and churches around the world, has been rearranged and re-harmonized with a fun, dance groove and layered over Gahu, a social dance rhythm from Ghana. Kakilambe With a strong Peter Gabriel influence, this melody from Guinea takes on a whole new vibe and features cracking djembe solos and interwoven keyboard lines. Obwisana This popular Ghanaian song has been remixed with a driving, upbeat Nigerian rhythm called Frekoba, slick keyboard hooks and a dance-style beat. Kuku Ey A popular rhythm and song from Guinea has a hypnotic arrangement that features Jim Donica's very sweet, Jaco-style bass solo! The lyrics loosely translate to mean: Are you ready to play Kuku on your drum? Yes. Lets play Kuku, tell your friends to play Kuku on the drum. Ayiko Ayiko This world-beat, calypso arrangement of one of my favorite Nigerian songs will have you on your feet and dancing. This is a great party song and features a rhythm called African Ibo. Journey to Mali Set behind the 9/8 rhythm Koreduga, my dream to visit Mali is put into song with all the people and cities to visit. With a Peter Gabriel vibe and Robert Duncans Isley Brothers keyboard solo in the middle you will love it. Dance All Day Check out this world-beat, original dance tune
