After scores of comments about their first album, Marked By Great Size, the Brobdingnagian Bards returned to the basics with this outstanding journey of Bardic growth. The music is uplifting and reviving, romantic and sultry, funny and wonderfully pathetic as any bard album should be. If you want to experience a renaissance in your life, get this album! It will have you dancing in fields with maidens, kissing frogs, serenading women, and smiling all the way home. ABOUT BROBDINGNAGIAN BARDS Scottish and Irish folk songs combined with the Lord of the Rings music and a wee bit o'Celtic fun. The Brobdingnagian Bards (pronounced brob-din-nahg-EE-en) are The Original Celtic Renaissance music duo from Austin, Texas. Their unique brand of folk music on the autoharp, recorder, and mandolin has made them one of the most-popular Celtic music groups online where they give away thousands of free Celtic MP3 downloads daily. The Brobdingnagian Bards perform coast-to-coast, and in a given month might be at a Lord of the Rings Oscar Party, a Celtic festival, or a Science Fiction Convention. However, they are an absolute favorite at Renaissance Faires where they add high-energy and wit to make every show a memorable experience.
