July 18, 2005 RUSTIE BLUE

IN COUNTRY WEEKLY Rustie Blue is once again gracing the pages of Country Weekly! Country Weekly's August 1 issue mentions in the Scene and Heard section that Rustie Bill Anderson won the ECMA "Vocal Collaboration Of The Year" for "Chip Chip", their hit duet. The issue has George Strait on the cover, and is on news-stands now. Country Weekly isn't the only publication catching on. Music City News has Rustie as the Artist of Interest for their August/September issue. Fans can listen to song clips and read more about Rustie in the feature! Rustie Blue's "The Devil May Care," is currently at #4 on the Indie World Country Chart. This sassy, traditional country song is a catchy tune about a relationship gone bad. "The Devil May Care" can be found on CDX #365 track 15, Mark Trail Music compilation #10 track 9, and on the April CHi Hotdisc. Rustie Blue's new single off of her Chip Chip cd is titled "Tomorrow Tonight". The song was written by Deborah Allen and Bill Anderson (who is also Rustie's duet partner on "Chip Chip"). This mid-tempo ballad is about a couple getting together for the very first time and not worrying about anything else but that moment. "Tomorrow Tonight" can be found on Chi HotDisc #79 and Mark Trail on M-T-M #12. Rustie Blue is nominated for the 2005 Music Box Country Rising Artist and Outgoing Artist Awards! She is currently at #8. Winners will be announced in November or December in a theatre in Paris, France, and will be chosen by votes from fans (80) and the industry (20). Fans can vote at musicboxtv.com Le Top Twenty, and clicking on the picture of the trophy. MP3s of Tomorrow Tonight, a copy of the Chip Chip album, interviews, photos available by request. Rustie also has a sound byte recorded about the story behind "Tomorrow Tonight" and how the song ended up in her hands.

She will perform her duet, "Chip Chip," with Whisperin' Bill Anderson on the Ernest Tubb Midnight Jamboree, at the Texas Troubadour Theatre in Music Valley

Village in Nashville, TN (across from Opryland) at midnight. The Ernest Tubb Midnight Jamboree is broadcast live on WSM-AM following the Grand Ole Opry. The show can be heard around the world via the website, wsmonline.com/page.asp?Page=46, and on Sirius Satellite radio channel 137 (sirius.com). This is what the music industry has to say about Rustie Blue and "Chip Chip:" "Whisperin' Bill is singing strongly here and Rustie's harmony vocal is on the money. The production thumps right along. And the song is a catchy dandy, too." Robert K. Oerman, Music Row Magazine "Rustie Blue, who's opened for Aaron Tippin, Daryle Singletary, David Lee Murphy and other stars, has been traveling the world spreading her traditional brand of country music. Late last year, just before taking her show to Australia, Rustie went into a Nashville studio with Opry star Bill Anderson to record a duet of 'Chip Chip.' The song turned out so well that it's the title cut of Rustie's new 15-song CD and she and Bill sound great! And where is Rustie's next international jaunt? Norway." Larry Holden, Country Weekly Magazine "I think this song is REALLY HOT! We have already been getting some excellent reaction on to the song and it will be charting in the Hotdisc chart this Thursday. I will be playing the song on radio quite a bit for no other reason than it is one of the best cuts on Hotdisc this month and deserves ON MERIT airplay!" Stuart Cameron, CHi Hotdisc "Chip Chip" has debuted on the New Music Weekly Chart at #50 and is moving up. Rustie has touring plans for 2005, for more information and for high-resolution downloadable photos go to rustieblue.com. for media downloads go here: rustieblue.com/media\_downloads.htm

Rustie Whisperin' Bill

Anderson team up together with the duet "Chip Chip" December, 2003 Good things are worth waiting for! Rustie has just come out of the studio with the Legendary Bill Anderson where they recorded their first duet together entitled "Chip Chip" an original song written by Bill and never before released! Single to be released sometime in the early part of 2004 and will also be included on Rustie's next album and possibly on Bill's next CD in Jan. 2004. Rustie states "Bill has been a huge inspiration to me in my career and has given me wonderful support" and I can't thank him enough for that." Rustie Rustie first opened shows for Whisperin Bill Anderson in 2001 and then went on to record "On and On and On" ( a song written by Bill Anderson) which hit the E.M.S. European Chart in May and at the same time was sitting at the top of the "Hot Country Singles Chart" at #1. Also Rustie recorded "I'm Not Going Til I'm Gone," a beautiful ballad and fantastic song written by Bill and has now charted on the Mildura Hot FM top 100 Country Hits Chart at #49., and has also kept Rustie high on the "Worldwide Mainstream Chart."
