Details: Release Title: 50 Techno Electro Tunes, Volume 1 (Compilation) Label: CAPP Records Early in 2008, CAPP Records worked with its label partners, including Germanys Mental Madness, to assemble a dance music compilation release that would be unlike any other: First, we recognized that many dance compilations lack in composition, production quality, and the strength of the material included; we wanted a compilation of quality, commercial dance music start-to-finish. Second, we saw that the economy was starting to losing steam, so we wanted to create a compilation that represented excellent value to the consumera compilation that makes the buying decision a no-brainer. And third, we wanted a compilation that covered a lot of musical territory, one that offered something for virtually every lover of dance music; not just techno and electro, but progressive, house, hardstyle, jumpstyle and even some trance A virtual tour of dance music genres! The result was 50 Techno Electro Tunes, Volume 1. Priced at just under $10, and incorporating a blend of tracks from the CAPP catalog as well as newly-licensed songs, initial feedback was very strong among consumers in the Apple iTunes Store. Shortly after its release, 50 Techno Electro Tunes, Volume 1 hit the Top Albums list in the dance category, and its stayed there consistently throughout most of 2008. We were excited to see the compilation reach the #1 position for the first time in early December 2008. (iTunes Top Album positions are calculated in real-time and based on sales performance; consequently, they vary somewhat day-to-day.) The incredible acceptance of 50 Techno Electro Tunes, Volume 1 is a testament to the quality, variety, and value that it offers to consumers. Moreover, many of the tracks are so strong, that we have begun promoting them individually to radio and DJs. These include Andrew Spencers incredible cover of To Be With You, a great 80s ballad that sounds better than ever as a dance floor track, as well as Steve H., an upand- coming producer from Austria, with his original track, Dont Stop Dancin, that with its soulful male vocal and great production, is a hit in the making. You can look for CAPP Records to be promoting additional tracks from this incredible release in the months ahead. Were pleased to present your digital copy of the entire 50 Techno Electro Tunes, Volume 1 release, including the extended mixes we include free for consumers, an unbelievable 100 tracks for just a 10-spot!
