***** * Whether it's the r&b soul of "Missin' You Like Crazy", "Missing Your Love", or the instrumental funk of "Funk-alien", "Jam This!", this is truly a singer/songwriter/musician with a versatile approach to music. His style is definitely original and his vocals are exceptionally smooth; reminiscent of some of our "ole' skool heroes" back in the day. * A native of Louisiana, Rick moved to Atlanta, Ga. and is continuing to pursue production and songwriting under his company "LynRome Publishing" which he co-owns with his brother Patrick Harris, a rhythm blues artist/songwriter in La. * As former member of the band "The Texas Upsetters", led by former saxophone player "Grady Gaines"(from Little Richard's band "The Upsetters"), Rick's experience as lead singer and bass player for the group has helped him tremendously in his solo efforts as evident on this multi-genred CD. * In 2003, Rick was fortunate enough to have a song placed on an album by R&B Soul artist "Rome"(I Belong To You).The song "Trust In Somebody", co-written by brother Patrick, helped to launch 'LynRome Publishing' and establish a home for writing and producing. * So listen with an open mind to the different styles of music presented; R&B/Soul, Jazz/Funk, Electronic, even Lounge, on this CD and you're sure to appreciate this talented singer, songwriter, and musician!!
