

Groove Agent Patrol 1988 House 152 Loops

The Groove Agent Patrol is one of the most awesome drum collections of the Loopmaniac. The drummer of the band went nuts and while he was locked up, the Loopatologist got with the Groove Agent and cranked out some really kool loops beats and grooves. The drummer finally got better , but after he heard the Groove Agent Patrol he quickly developed an inferiority complex. Needless to say the Loopatologist has caught him up late at night trying to learn new beats and grooves from the Groove Agent. Amazing the drummer's attitude has changed a whole bunch whenever we have practice he does exactly what I ask him to and doesn't even talk back now. I wonder what has got into him, maybe the grooves from the Groove Agent set him straight. I am sure you will love them too. Enjoy!
