

Mp3 Kathleen Hannan - Count My Heart

DOWNLOAD HERE

Joyful, articulate, North Carolina Arts Council award-winning folk/rock music that celebrates diversity and creates community. 12 MP3 Songs in this album (51:52) ! Related styles: FOLK: Alternative Folk, FOLK: Urban Folk People who are interested in Pete Seeger Sweet Honey in the Rock Sonia Disappear Fear should consider this download. Details: Kathleen Hannan is never just a performer on stage. She makes music that makes community. Sarah Lauren Palmer, The Independent Weekly, Durham, NC Kathleen Hannan is the winner of the North Carolina Arts Council Songwriter Fellowship. Her songs are a joyful celebration of diversity, nature and community that reach deep into the heart of life. Reviewer Mickey Carter (Out In the Mountains, Burlington, VT) writes, "I found myself wishing that more songwriters had Hannan's gift of truth and gentle defiance, and that more singers had the courage to give life to such a message of spirituality, love, and passion." Count My Heart/Kathleen Hannan Friends features her award winning songs Maria, about reclaiming Mary as the Goddess and Been Here Forever, a GLBT liberation rock anthem, as well as If You Ever Loved, which eloquently voices the spiritual truth that people of no particular religion or sexual preference have a corner on Love. The song has been recorded and toured internationally by Canadian artist Lucie Blue Tremblay. The joyful title cut Count My Heart celebrates the first democratic elections in South Africa in 1994, but it could equally have been written to celebrate the Obama election of 2008. The song was featured in the national folk music journal Sing Out. The long list of talented musicians on Count My Heart includes: Toddie Stewart, Beth Shulman, Sheila Fleming Warner, Rachel Ann Cross, Jaqui MacMillan, Robin Burdulis, Ariana Lightningstorm, Diana Sunday and Amikaeyla Proudfoot Gaston of the DC based band Kiva, James Benson, Doug Karger, Sonya Lewis, Beverly Bottsford, Sonia Stewart, Bob Vasile, Kari Thomas Kovick, Matt Van Hoose, and Karen Kelly. The album was co-produced by Kathleen and Sheila Warner Fleming, and was funded by contributions from the North Carolina community, plus a Mary Duke Biddle Foundation Grant. Kathleen Hannan is the founder and director of the Bodies, Voices Spirit Choruses of Durham and Carrboro/Chapel Hill, North Carolina. "She has a unique gift as a lyricistI found her songs to be nothing short of brilliant." Philip Van Vleck, Durham Herald-Sun "I found myself wishing that more songwriters had Hannan's gift of truth and gentle defiance, and that more singers had the courage to give life to such a message of spirituality, love, passion, and tolerance." Mickey Carter, Out In The Mountains, Vermonts GBLT newspaper "These are get-your-mind-going songs Out of 95 North Carolina songwriters, Kathleens songs stood out as some of the most exciting. I look forward to hearing more of her material." Amy Kurland, owner/manager Nashvilles Bluebird Caf "Kathleen!!!! I was away on a trip and came back to find the CD in my mailbox. Pick a superlative. It's wonderful, beautiful, soulful, musical, literate, edgy, elegant, polished, impressive, joyful, thought-full and thoughtful -- I could keep going" Bill Hight, artist "I left your show feeling like my heart was expanded and uplifted and that's my favorite way to leave a concert!" Helen Speilman, producer, musician Searches:kathleen hannan album

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals: