A beautiful collection of favorite wedding songs on the classical and acoustic guitar, celtic harp, and vocals. It's just perfect for a wedding ceremony or just to relax to. 10 MP3 Songs EASY LISTENING: Love Songs, CLASSICAL: Traditional Details: **Please see Colleen's new CD, A Simple Life, which will be set up for digital distribution by January, 2007. With her expressive voice and crisp guitar style, Colleen can deliver tender, heart-felt songs, touching a chord with every listener. Songs of love and loss accompanied by songs of passion and longing make her a favorite among coffeehouses and weddings alike. Her influences include Kelly Willis, Nanci Griffith, Mary Chapin-Carpenter, and Joni Mitchell. A classically trained guitarist, she's been playing since she was nine. She has studied with such notable classical guitarists as Christopher Parkening, Manuel Barrueco, and David Tannenbaum. When she was just 16, she took to the roads of Mexico and toured with the Grossmont Guitar Ensemble. She also began teaching guitar at the International Music Center in San Diego, California. Currently residing in Phoenix, Arizona, Colleen was recently part of the opening act for country music legend, Ray Price, at the Celebrity Theatre in Phoenix. She also performed one of her songs, "Letting You Go," in the upcoming Danish documentary film, "A Boy Named Joshua," by Zentropa Real Films (owned by Danish director, Lars von Trier, who directed "Dancer in the Dark" starring Bjork). She is planning on releasing her debut CD later on this year, which is being produced by Josquin des Pres, a co-writer for Bernie Taupin. She is constantly in demand for weddings and other events around the Phoenix area.
