A La Nanita Nana $7.77 (PDF) for SATB Caroling Quartet and opt. Guitar Traditional Spanish Carol
Arranged by M Ryan Taylor A simple arrangement of a delightful Spanish carol, A La Nanita Nana, presented here with the original Spanish words (for a translation, visit this site). About this arrangement: SATB with no divisi, so this can be performed by a traditional caroling quartet or a full-sized choir. This arrangement goes beyond your typical Christmas in Song arrangement with an alternate 2nd Verse, so the carol can be performed in an ABA pattern. The second verse may be omitted if you wish to keep things simple. Ive included a guitar chord pattern that can be used on each of the verses, even though it is only given on the first and third (to keep it on 2 pages). The margins are spaced so you can easily whole-punch it and lay it into a three-ring binder with no page turns. I felt the inclusion of the guitar was important, though it is optional, it would be great fun to perform this with a seasoned guitarist (just for the joy of it). It has a different character than many of our traditional French, German and English carols, so it would be great for adding a bit of spice to your program or caroling.
