17 track anthology jam-packed with all of the charted soul/R&B/blues singles from Spirit Records' first 20 years - all of the Debby Dobbins Sonja Grier US and Northern soul classics and the early Bradford Bell hits. 17 MP3 Songs URBAN/R&B: Soul, BLUES: Rhythm Blues Details: 7/28/06 CAROLINA SOUL, The Spirit Records Anthology This anthology contains all of the soul/R&B/blues singles from Spirit Records first 20 years (1980-2000). Represented are all of the Spirit artists from this period including Debby Dobbins, Sonja Grier, Maria Howell, The Pelicans, Bradford Bell, and the Groove Doctors. In short, this is a jam-packed compilation of all of the singles that became hits on regional, national, and international levels, and which charted on radio and in clubs. The early Spirit singles by Bradford Bell and The Pelicans have a roots R&B/blues feel that enjoyed much success with radio and club DJs on the Carolinas southeastern US coast. In fact, (They Call It) Mr. Dollars, the labels debut 1980 release by Bradford Bell, was an out-of-the-box regional hit. Then the evolution of Spirits sound took a big leap later that year with the release of Debby Dobbins debut single, the smooth and soulful How You Gonna Feel, which charted first in the southeastern US, then leapt across the pond to remain a northern soul classic to this day in the UK. 1981 saw the second Debby Dobbins release, Glad I Found You, which promptly charted on over 100 stations. Her third release, Cant Help This Feelin, considered her biggest hit, charted on 165 stations and propelled her to Hollywood and worldwide TV performance of the song on Star Search. 1987 brought international success to the Charlotte, NC based label with the release of Love Flight 109, a blistering dance floor classic delivered here by Maria Howell, which became a top twenty international dance hit for Sonja Grier. These are just a few highlights from the 17 songs included on the CD which can be sampled by clicking at the left of this page. With this anthology, the musical evolution, and geographical reach of the Spirit label is evidenced and documented over its first 20 years.
