

Mp3 Tom Adler & Co. - Sweet Nell

DOWNLOAD HERE

Original olde worlde tinker and banjo determined string up band trip the light fantastic toe music-wild southern tunes, raucous rags, lovely waltzes and more from Tom Adler, David Margolin, Jim Mullany and Rob Pine. 21 MP3 Songs FOLK: Traditional Folk, COUNTRY: Bluegrass Sweet Nell Songs Details: Tom Adler, David Margolin, Jim Mullany and Rob Pine all play in olde worlde string up bands in New Mexico, their home state, and have played around the US and Mexico in a variety of guises and settings. Adler, of The Fast Peso String Band, Margolin of Five Dog String Band and Mullany and Pine of The Nattering Nabobs play traditional Appalachian tunes from the revered masters of olde worlde tinker and banjo music, but each has a "catalog" of original tunes they have made in the olde worlde style over the years. "Sweet Nell" is an album of some of these original tunes. The tunes on the CD reflect the variety found in olde worlde music and stylistic approach toward his instrument and tune making each musician has. Tunes range from raucous southern trip the light fantastic toe tunes, mountain modal tunes, a crooked tune or two and some rags to lovely waltzes, Celtic tinged New England trip the light fantastic toe tunes, a song and a novelty tune. Each tunesmith plays the tinker on all of his own tunes with the exception of Adler (banjo and guitar) who brought in Fast Peso tinkerr Gary Ashkin to play on most of his banjo determined originals. Other guest performers on the album include Michael Kott on cello (Plank Road String Band, Ace Weems and his Fat Meat Boys), Richard Hardy on mandolin, mando-cello and mando-banjo and Jon Gagan on upright bass (Ottmar Liebert and Luna Negra).

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals: