Native American Flute Music 10 MP3 Songs WORLD: Native American, EASY LISTENING: Mood Music
Details: David Beaulieu was born in a small town in New Hampshire where he still lives today. Like most people of Native descent, the fact of his Native heritage was hidden. About seven years ago, David began his search of his family tree. After some time he found what he was looking for. Both Great Grandmothers were Native Americans. One was of Ojibwa descent and the other Abenaki. After the discovery he attended a local powwow, where he was first introduced to the Native American courting flute. It was love at first sound. The beautiful and inspiring music now fills his home and heart. Influenced many Native artist, for the haunting and thought provoking sound, David found his own style and place. Creating his songs in his home along with his loving pet, Harley Son of Eagle Bear, whos vocals inspired the song Owl and Eagle Bear on his first CD Leap of Faith. David was given the name five years ago. An Elder gave him the name Searching Owl. So, may the music fill your hearts as it does mine. Thank You Creator Aho Written by Janet Quiet Dove
